

Grand Canyon Tourist

Welcome to the Grand Canyon where history, nature and the most beautiful vistas in North America can be found right outside your door. Trails, overlooks and historical architecture mean you are never at a loss for something to do. The shuttle can take you easily from destination to destination along the South Rim. Grand Canyon Village offers beauty, history and practicality hosting lovely hotels, stores and museums. Whether you come for a few hours or a few days, you will want to plan carefully.

Visit GrandCanyonTourist.com for a complete guide to planning your Grand Canyon vacation.

Grand Canyon Tourist

The North and South Rims of the Grand Canyon have very different feels and appeal to people for different reasons. Nature lovers will be hard pressed to be disappointed anywhere, but if it's solitude and quiet you want, the North Rim is the way to go. If you're into history and require some amenities, it's the South Rim for you. Regardless, there are countless ways to enjoy your time at the Grand Canyon.

For a complete list of lodging, tour companies, and more, visit GrandCanyonTourist.com.